How We Got Here

Who Made It Happen

Fairview Has Many Faces And Moods

From Freshman Orientation in September to Graduation in May, the administration, faculty, and students are involved in activities which run the gamut from regular classwork to valogram delivery to a pep assembly that urged the basketball team to "Beat Roth."

Fairview Students are presented an opportunity to grow socially as well as intellectually. The activities of the school reflect the diversity of student interest and student skills. Recognition of achievement plays an important part in a continuing Fairview tradition of excellence.

At Fairview, there has always been an attempt to provide an atmosphere that encompasses all facets of student life. Read and look with us as we provide a capsule review of 1976.

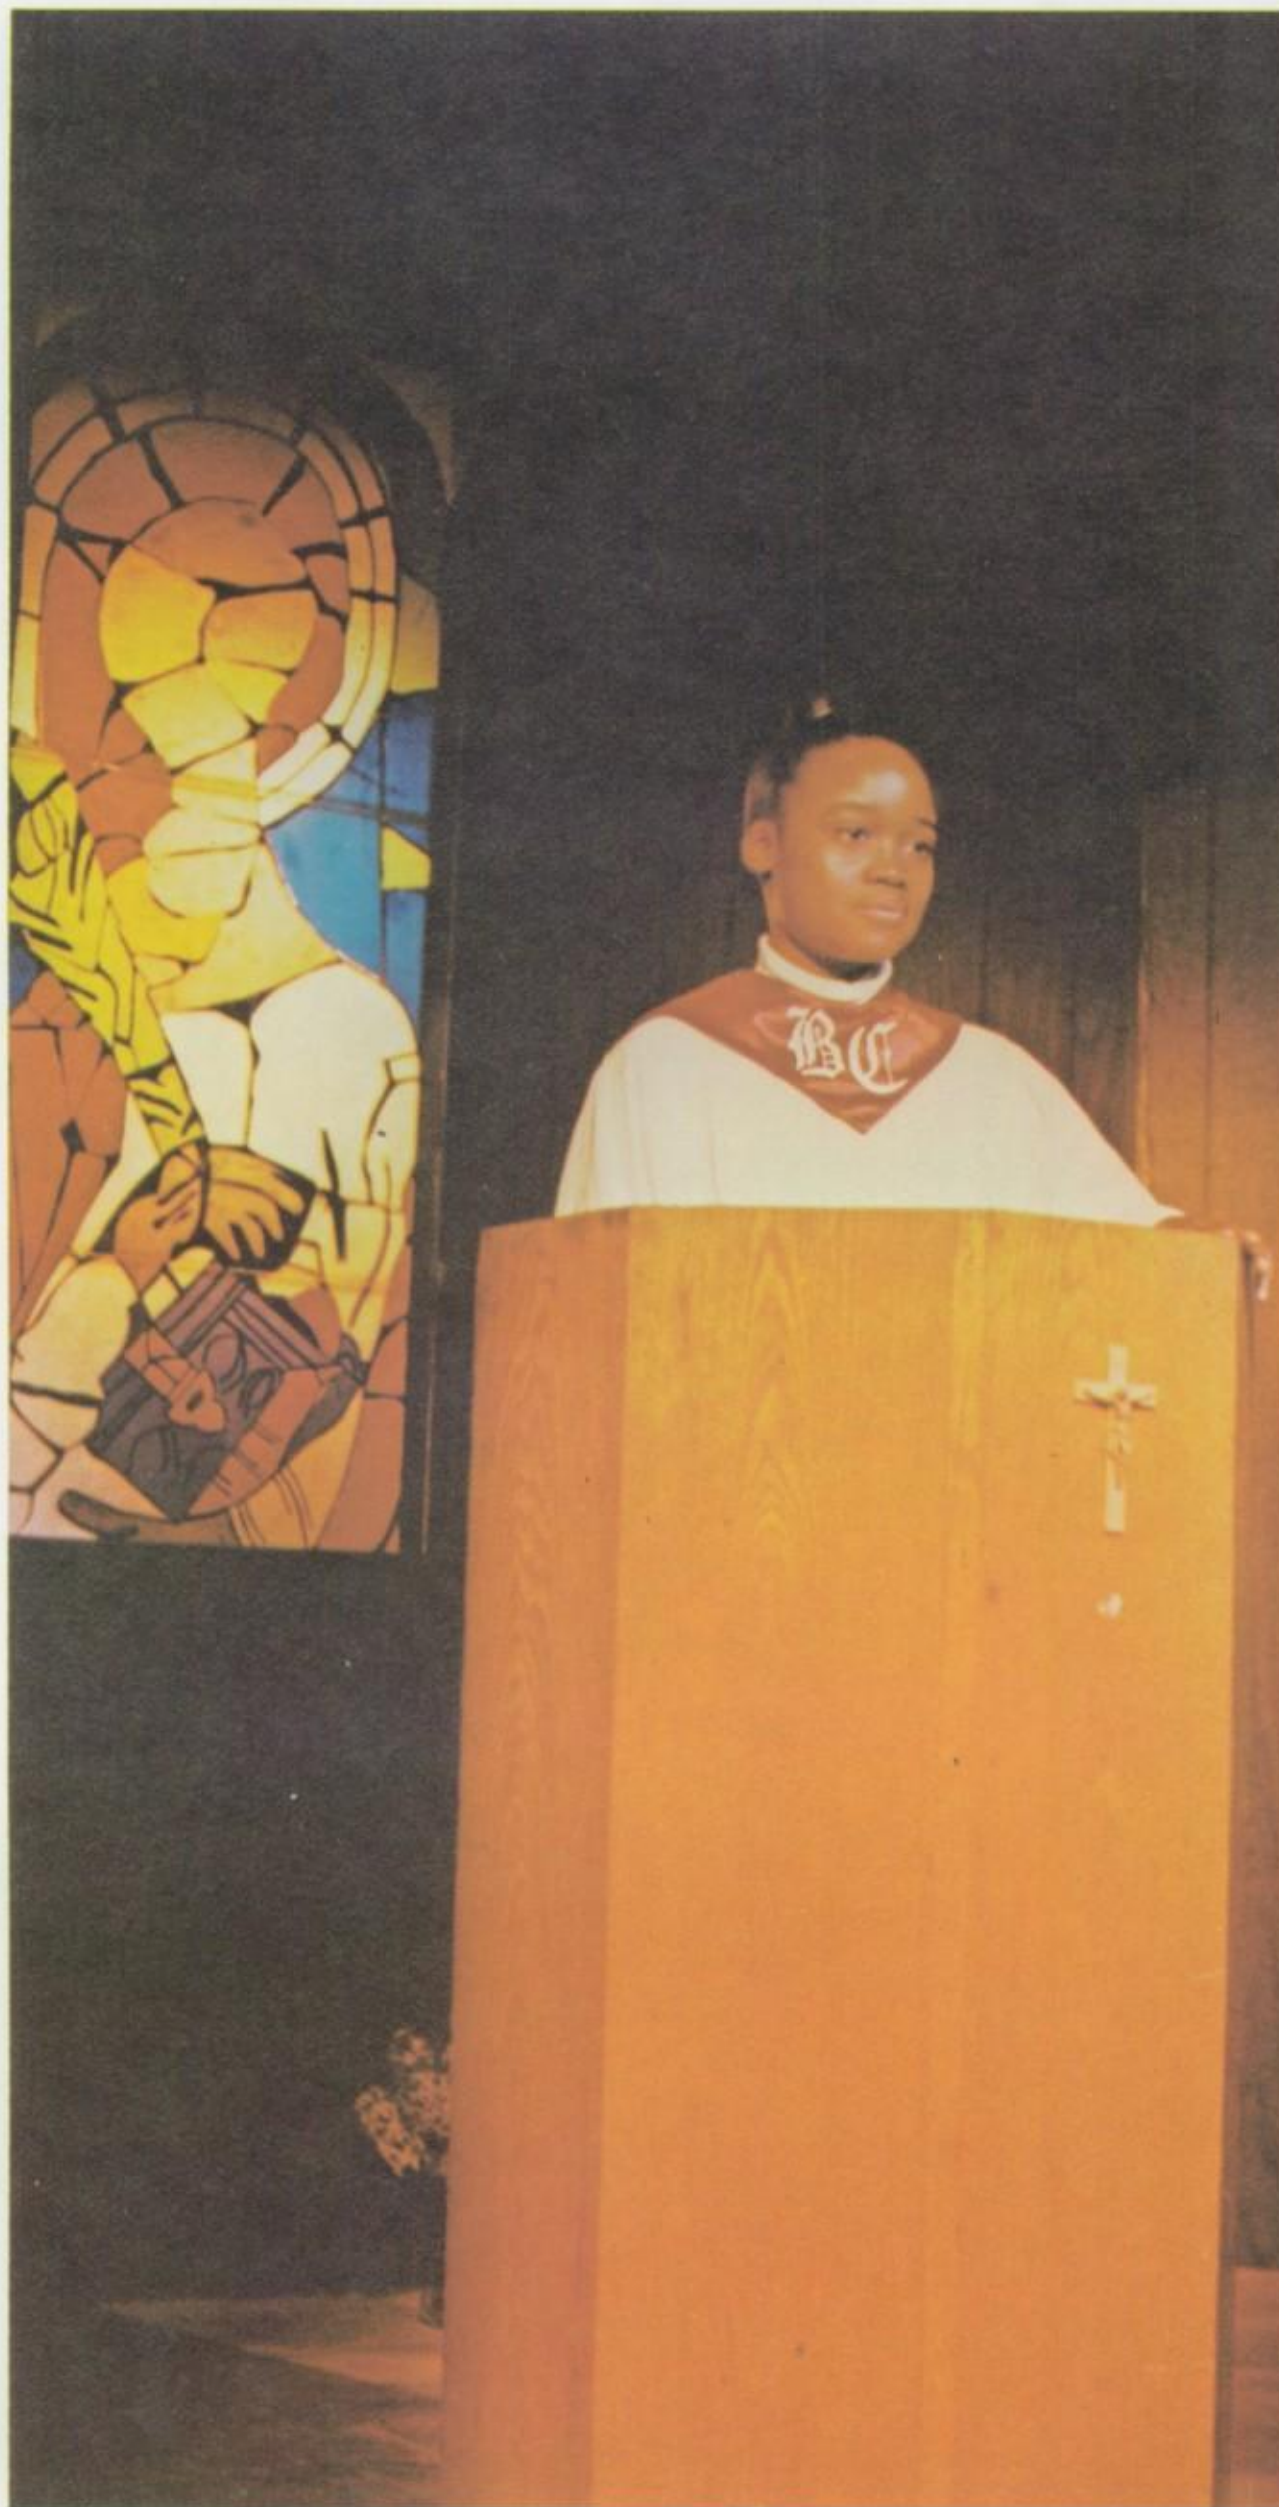

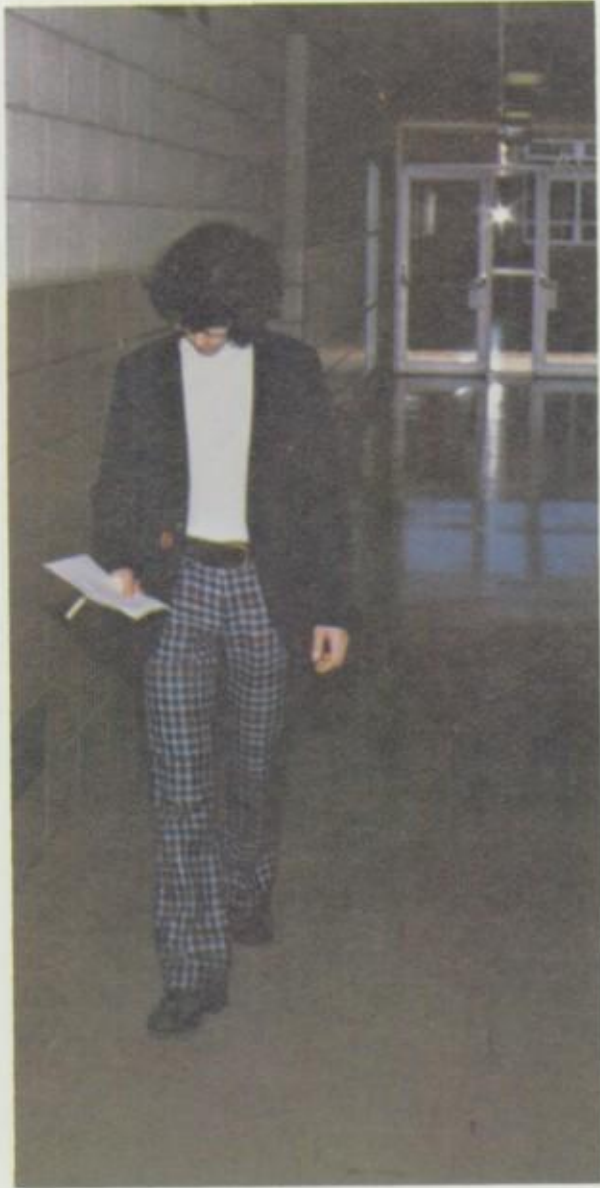

Fairview students find artistic, as well as practical, outlets for their individual talents.

In music, Sonny Saeks, with the Pep Band, provides the music for a pep assembly.

Gin McDaniel uses her art skills to prepare a mural for Homecoming.

*The Arts Receive
Special Notice

Or Even Disguised*

Individual And Group Projects Play An Important Part In School Life

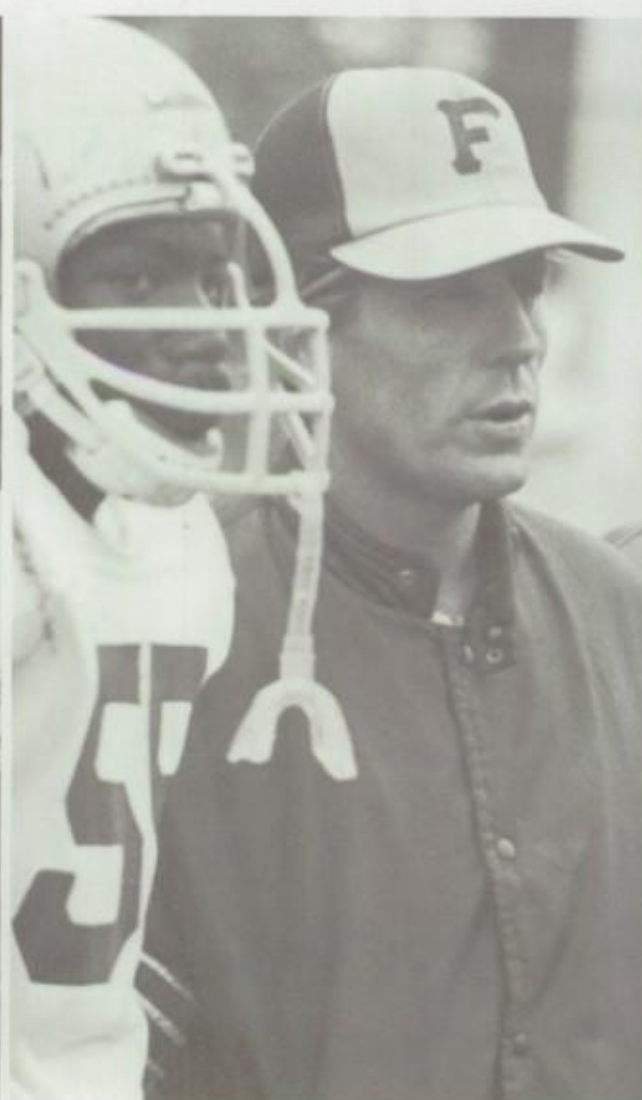

All activities and organizations within the school require commitment from individuals in order for Fairview to function.

Returning Downtown Magnet students meet each day in the cafeteria. Randy Sells defeats Wilbur Wright's Hatton in the City Wrestling Meet and is named Outstanding City Wrestler. Members of the Freshman Planning Committee make plans for the year. Joan Romeiser and Mike Moran perform a skater's lift. David Wortham prepares for his role as Han in the Children's Theatre production of THE EMPEROR'S NEW CLOTHES. Jenny Saeks and Mark Dempsey reign as king and queen of the 1975 homecoming.

The Sports Program Captures The School's Enthusiasm

Throughout the school year, the sports program at Fairview provides the excitement and involvement for all the students. Coach Smith talks to the reserve football team at the Meadowdale game. Cynthia Thompson cheers at a pep assembly. Not even rain can dampen the spirit at the Meadowdale game. Coach Cox observes his freshman team in action. David Wortham and Mark Dempsey explain the importance of a victory over Roth in the City Championship race. Blair Brown, who prepares for the football trip to Canton; Michelle Lindsey, and Michael Sapinsley symbolize the face of athletics at Fairview.

The city championship was not decided until Fairview's last league game of the season. The victory gave the Bulldogs an 8-0 city record. The last game wasn't an easy one to win; Belmont took Fairview into two nerveracking overtimes.

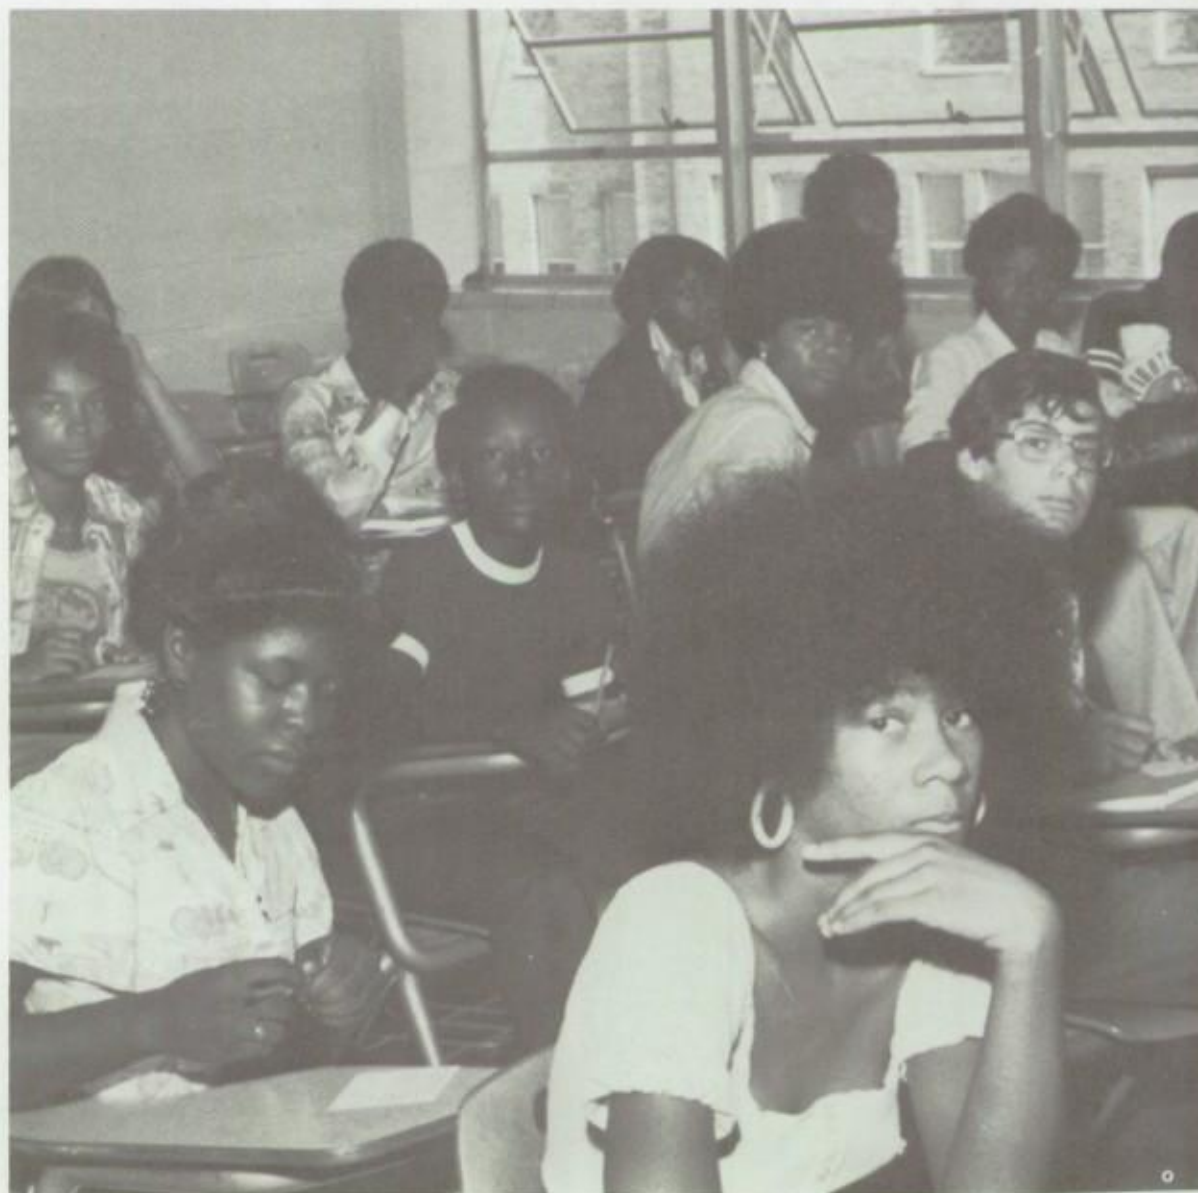

Teamwork Is The Key To Bulldog Championship

Student Government Welcomes The Class Of 1979

It is the responsibility of Student Government, the elected representative body of the school, to sponsor and conduct Freshman Orientation. Mike Sapinsley, vice president of Student Government, welcomes the students and familiarizes them with the programs available throughout the school. The freshmen receive their schedules and spend the morning visiting the classes in which they are enrolled.

The 1976 team overcame numerous injuries to finish a challenging year. Both team and individual effort were needed to fight for victory.

Extra
Dimension to the Season*

Coach Winters studies the exciting action of the Colonel White annual rivalry. Al Hall and Steve Edwards elude would be Tacklers in executing the play. Bench strength provided support for a strong finish for the season.

Coach Gounaris weathered the Meadowdale downpour better than the team score. But the season's high points were marked with the trips to Findlay and Canton McKinley High Schools.

Fairview Reserve team under the direction of Coach Bill Smith builds toward future victorious seasons. The exciting Meadowdale game demonstrated the spirit and team effort that will be necessary for later years.

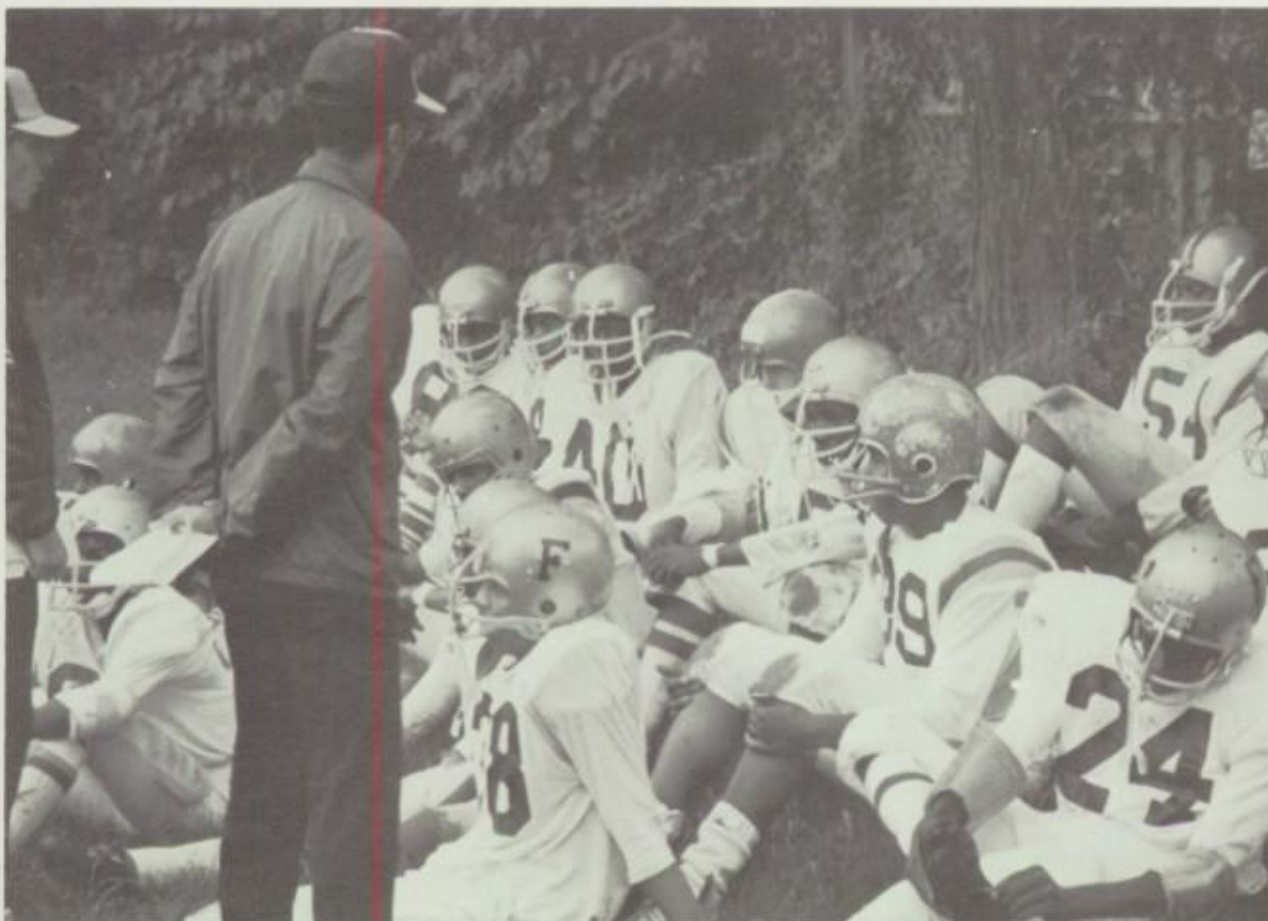

Coach Jack Cox and Coach Clarence Moore guide the Freshman team through a successful season. These young athletes will become the nucleus for the traditional fighting Bulldogs.

Band, Scotchettes, And Majorettes Entertain

The Band, Majorettes and Scotchettes of 1976 perform the halftime show of our football games. The organization puts in hours of practice to do their best for the Bulldog fans. The squad choreographs their own shows while the band director leads the band in precision marching. The band starts their practice season at Band Camp in August. The first performance of the year is at the Montgomery County Fair, where numerous squads participate in exhibition.

During the half-time show of the Roth game the senior band and Scotchette members and Cheerleaders are recognized for their dedication throughout their years. Scotchettes are led by officers Peggy Reinsch, Yvette Hall, Anne Caplinger, and Jenny Saeks. At the end of the half-time performance, the squad joins the fans to cheer the team on to victory. The pep band directed by Mike Reid and Tom Harruff, play numerous selections for the Bulldog fans at the basketball home games.

*Spirit Week Prepares Students

*Seniors Continue Winning Tradition
By Taking First Place*

During the week of the Fairview-Meadowdale football game, all classes participate in what has become a tradition: Spirit Week. Each class spends Tuesday evening decorating their hall for the Wednesday morning judging, and preparing their skit for the pep assembly on Friday afternoon.

At half-time at the game the winner of Spirit Week is announced. The senior class took first place this year, with their theme of "Hollywood."

Tri-Delphi Sponsors "All About Love"

Tri-Delphi is a service club made up entirely of junior and senior women. In addition to serving the community, Tri-Delphi sponsors the homecoming dance and the Battle of the Bands. Headed by president Karla Williams, this group chose "All About Love" as their theme.

Mark Dempsey And Jenny Saeks Reign Over 1975 Homecoming

The culmination of Homecoming Week 1975 was the traditional dance held after the Meadowdale game. Despite the rain and thunder and lightning, Fairview students turned out in large numbers for "All About Love," sponsored by Tri-Delphi. Mark Dempsey and Jenny Saeks, seniors, reigned as King and Queen. They were attended by Joyce Jones and David Wortham, seniors; Kelly Hayes and Lonnie Harris, juniors; Daphne Mallard and Darryl Gee, sophomores; and Theresa Sloan and Dearl Sanders, freshmen.

OUR TOWN, by Thornton Wilder, "presents time as a symbolic force in American life, his action flows in generations, and the audience, experiencing the history of the American family, experiences also the revelation of a truth at once pathetic, profound, and universal." OUR TOWN was Fairview's first major production of the season. Mr. William Smith directed and was assisted by Student Director David Wortham. Through the hard work of the cast and crew, OUR TOWN proved to be a successful and worthwhile presentation. In addition to the Fairview performances, students also presented the play at the Convention Center during the Festival of Schools. The cast included Terri Bell as the stage manager, and Charlotte Frydman and Bob Lee as Emily Webb and George Gibbs, the main characters in the play.

OUR TOWN Opens Theatre Season Devoted To American Drama

OUR TOWN was a success because of the following people, (Stagecrew): C. Mitchell, S. Saeks, J. Booher, M. Maieron, M. Moran, P. Bundman, J. Fisher; David Wortham, Student Director, and the cast.

CAST: D. Must, J. Lynch, P. Farrow, J. Jacobson, K. Kirkendall, R. Vera, T. Bell, B. Lee, D. Ehrenberg, R. Mayerson, C. Lew, C. Frydman, T. McMath, E. Scott.

Fairview's Theatre For Children Begins Third Season

Fairview's Theater for Children opened its third season with the production of LOUDER, I Can't Hear You, a story about a family having problems in communication. Because the plays were designed specifically for a young audience, Dayton's elementary school children received not only an enjoyable performance, but an educational opportunity. The plays were as much a learning experience for the actors and actresses as they were for the children to whom they were presented. This facet of Fairview's Drama Department has proved to be very successful, and each year has grown accordingly. The cast, under the direction of Diane Lieberman, consisted of Mike Reid, Sandra Lum, Eric Scott, Dan Ehrenberg, Debbie Edwards, Gwen Jones, and Anne Beach.

Fairview's National Forensic League, a contest speech organization, proved to be very successful during this past year. Fairview was the only city high school to compete with various other high schools in western Ohio. This year's team was led by Mr. William Smith, and president Ken Kirkendall. Felicia Cassels, a second year member of NFL, placed first in several contests and received various other awards in the category of Original Oratory.

Sacks, D. Must, A. Payne, K. Scott, Mr. William Smith.

The International Thespian Society, an honorary group of drama students, provided a variety of experiences for all age groups. Productions included OUR TOWN, done in the round; an original Americana musical, WE, THE PEOPLE; James Baldwin's AMEN CORNER; and several Children's Theater presentations. Officers of International Thespian Society were Cindy Merdinger, President; and Sue Berman, Secretary.

Cross Country Teams Finish With A Winning Record

The girl's team took first place over all in their division in the city meet. The men were very competitive and finished a strong second in the city. Seniors Steve Angerman, Tony Carter and Terri Bell were constantly adding to the Bulldog's scoring. Juniors Felicia Cassels, D. Thompson and D. Sagester consistently finished their races in the traditional Fairview winning style.

Young Tennis Team Does Well In City

Our Fairview Varsity Girl's Tennis Team fared well even though they were young and inexperienced. With the help and encouragement from their coach, Mrs. Brown, they learned a lot about their game. The team was made up of mostly freshmen, so their record in the future will continue to improve.

Golf Team Looks To The Future

The golf team had its ups and downs this year, probably more downs than ups. The team was very young and inexperienced. There were four freshmen, one sophomore, and two seniors rounding out the seven member squad.

The competition was relatively tough and seemed to always gain momentum when the chips were down. The team finished the season with a 2-7 record, and made a fair showing in the sectional and city tournaments.

The team hopes to be much improved next year because the players want to better their record. There are five lettermen returning for the 1976-77 school year and each letterman has pledged to practice over the summer vacation.

Volleyball Team Competes City Wide

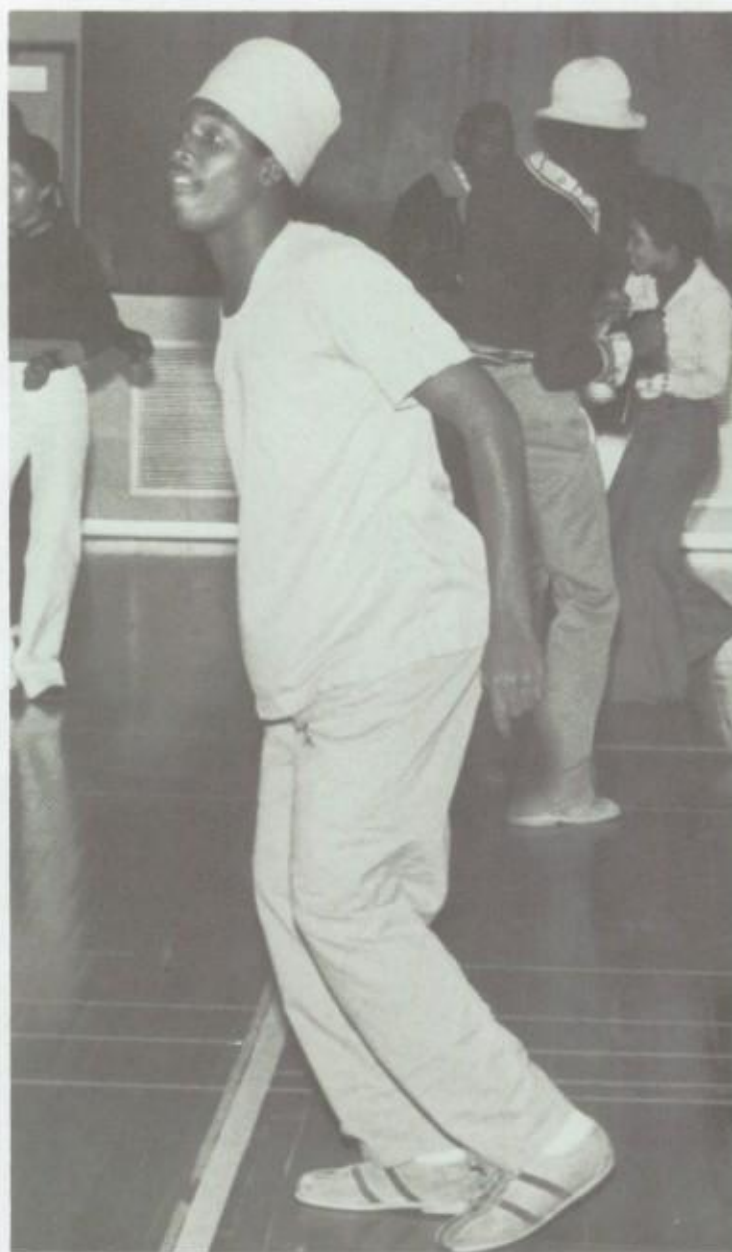

The Girls' Volleyball Team at Fairview provides one of the first opportunities of the school year for women to become involved in varsity sports. Coached by Arnelle Jackson, the Fairview team competes against all City League schools and in the City Tournament. Volleyball, although a relatively young sport in the Dayton schools, is gaining recognition and support from fans.

The basketball team presented their hard earned trophy and game basketball to Acting Principal, Mrs. Booker. Outstanding wrestlers received trophies from Coach Cox that they had won at the City Meet.

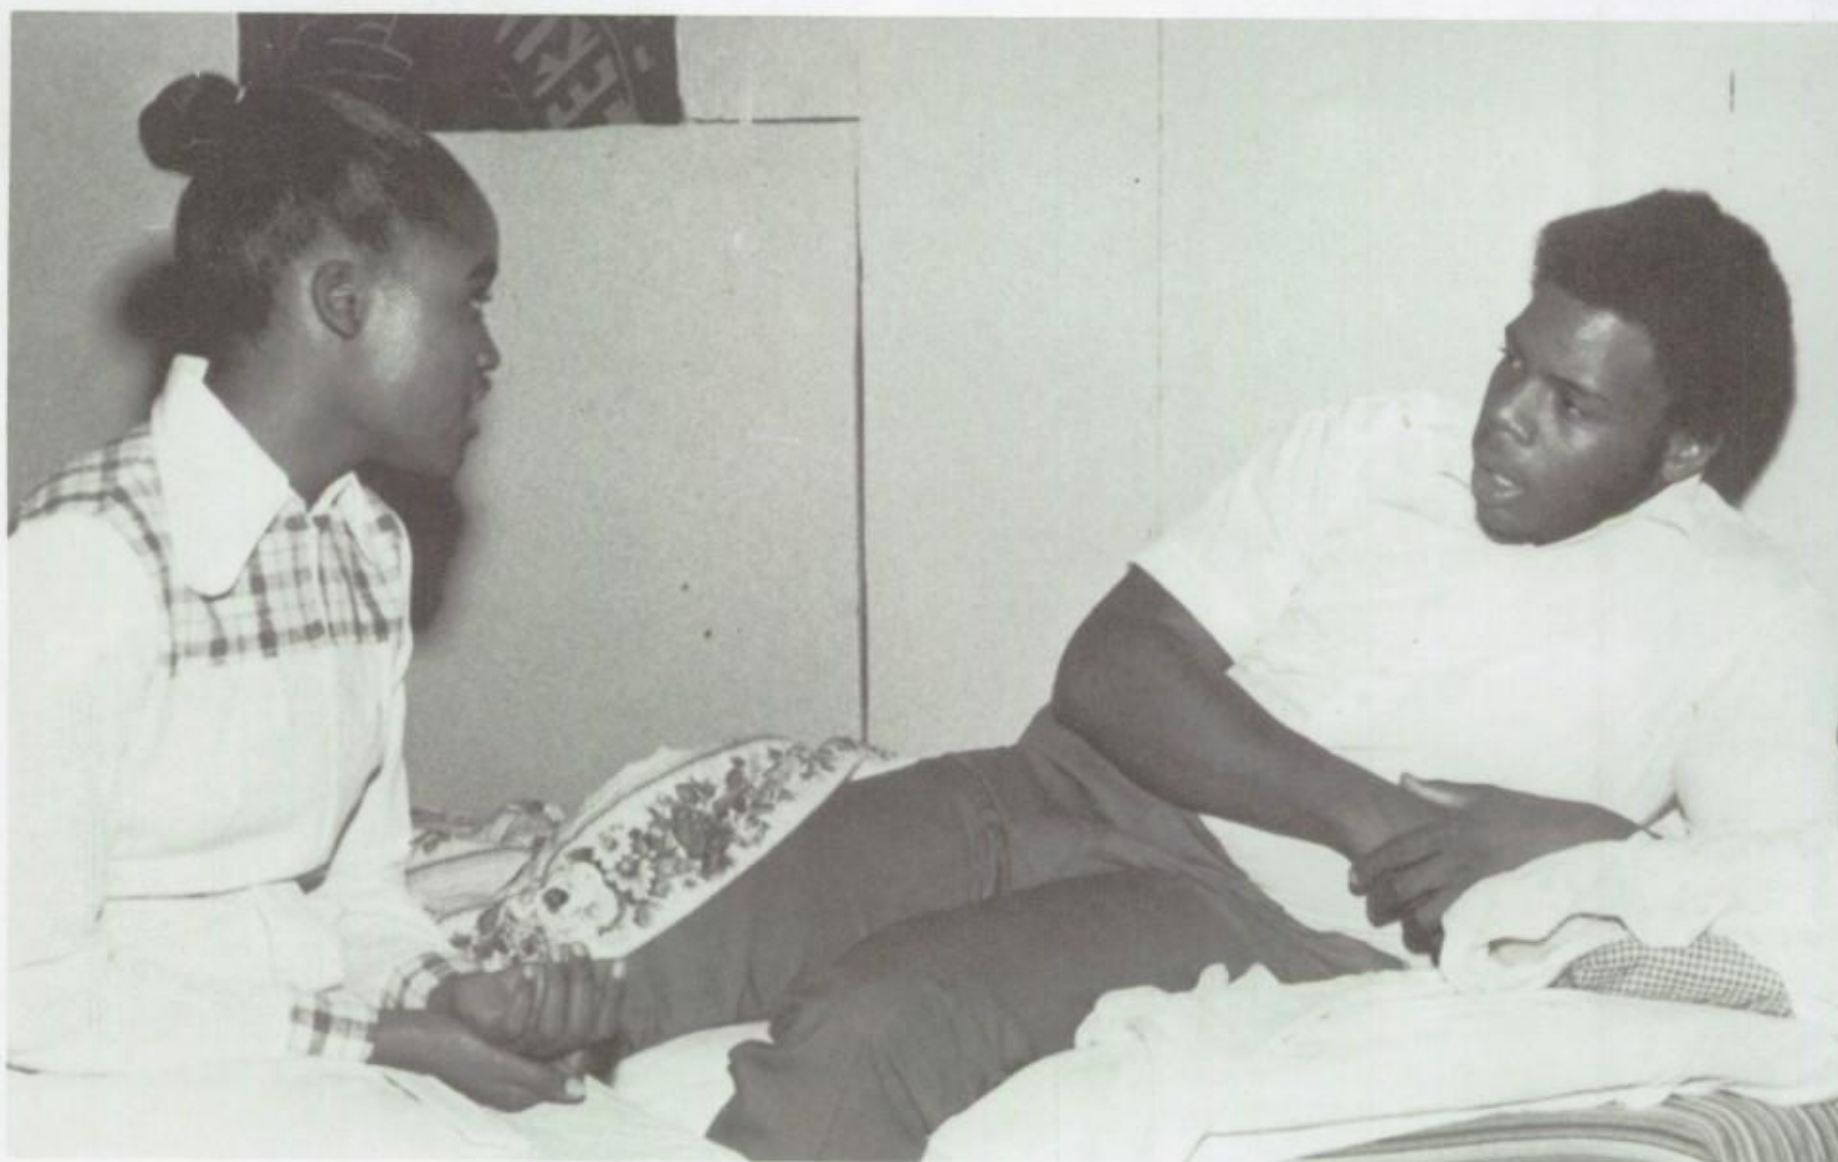

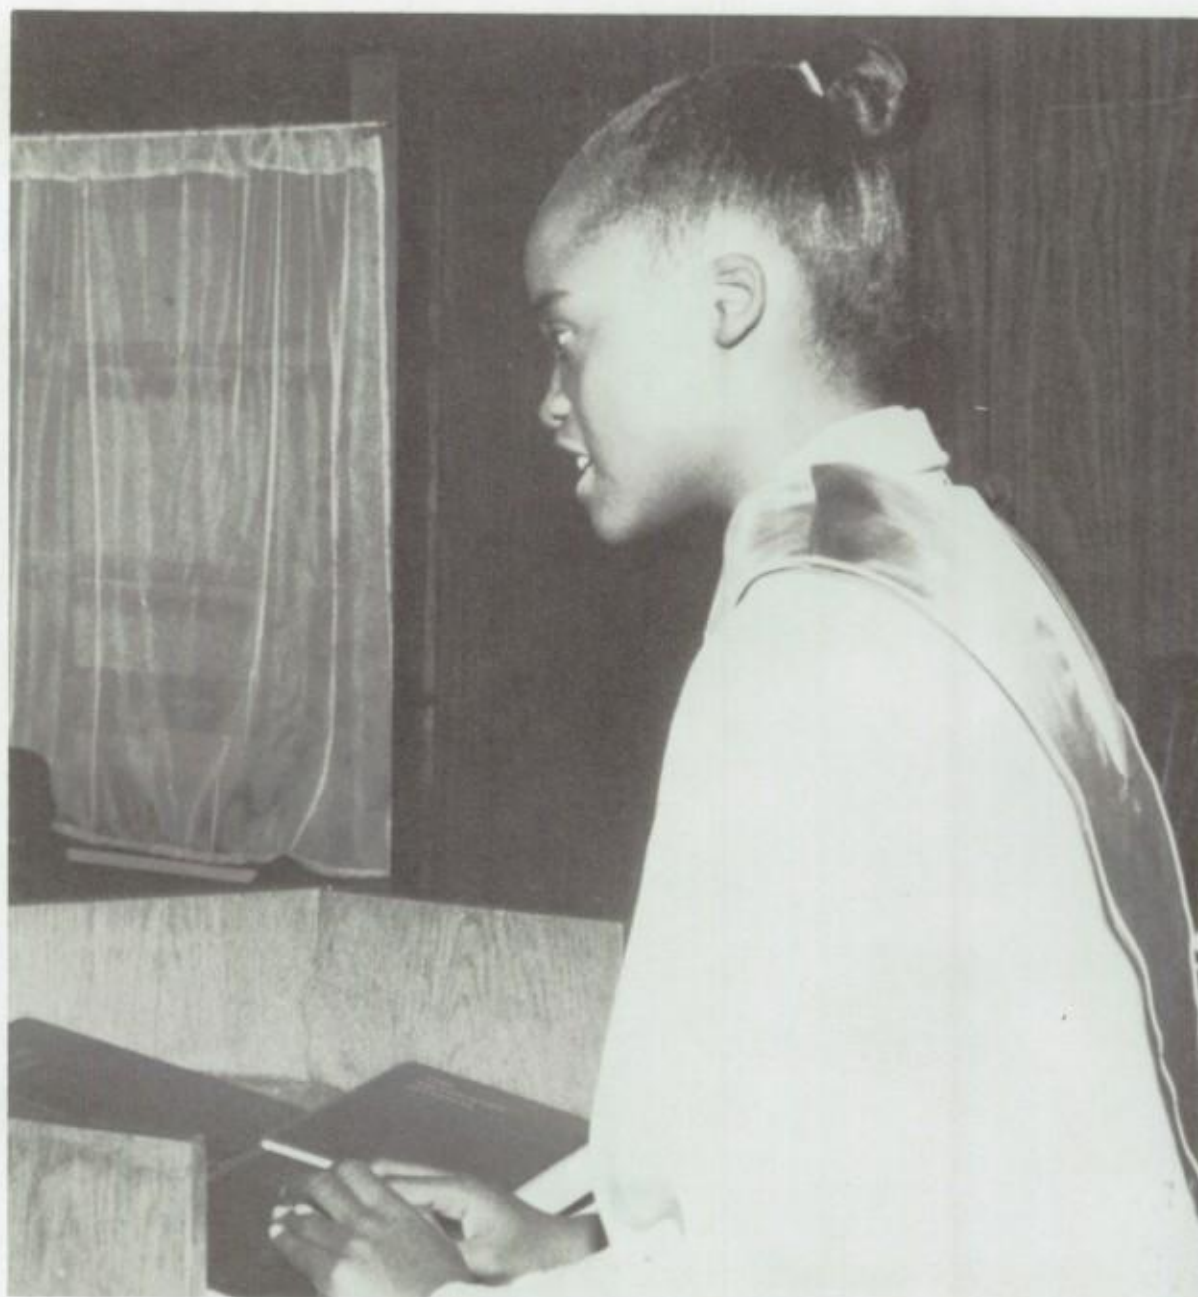

Amen Corner
Presented By
Drama Department

AMEN CORNER by James Baldwin was the winter production of the Fairview Drama Department. Set in a store front church in Harlem, the play deals with the struggle of Sister Margaret, played by Rozzie Vera, and her son David, played by David Wortham. Determined to see her son settled in a world of her own choosing, Sister Margaret sets into action a series of incidents that will shake the foundation of her own life and those of her church members. Mike Reid played Luke, Margaret's estranged husband who comes home to her to die.

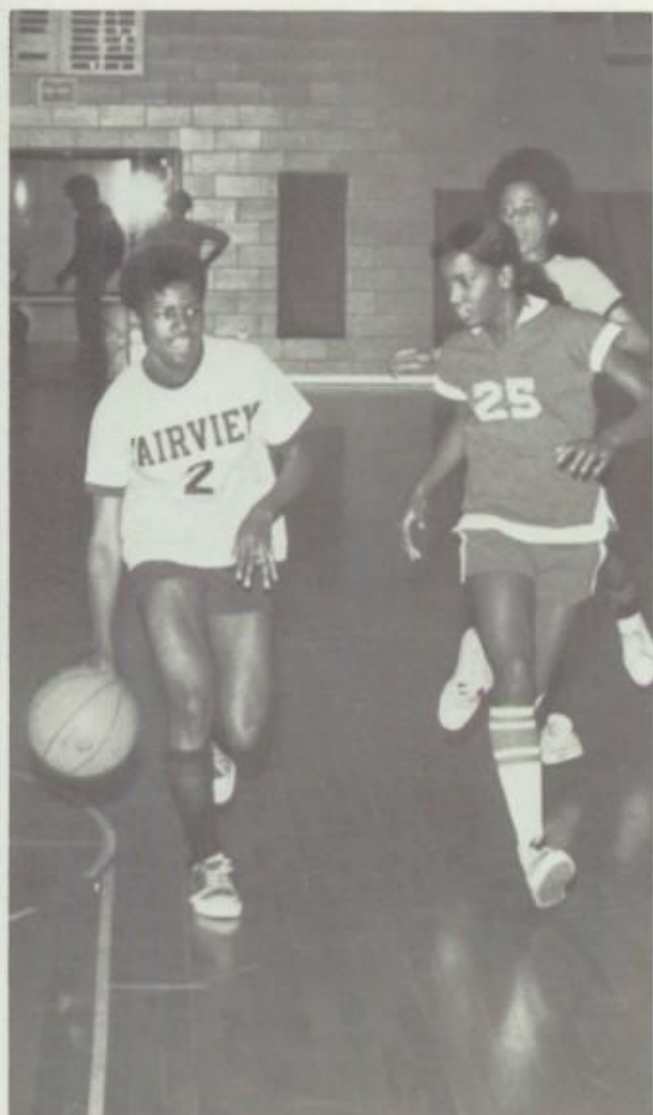

AMEN CORNER was one of a series of American dramas presented as a tribute to American theatre in our bicentennial. William Smith was the director. Tonya McMath was the Student Director and Phil Bundman designed the set and served as Technical Director.

Drama Department Presents One Acts

Each spring, senior members of the Fairview Drama Department produce a series of one act plays. The student directed one acts are presented during school for the Language Arts classes and at one evening performance. The productions this year were excerpts from A Thurber Carnival, The Lottery, and Trifles; directed by Tonya McMath, Dan Ehrenberg, and David Wortham respectively.

All aspects of the student directed one acts are handled by the students with only technical advice provided by Mr. Smith. Corbey Low was the Stage Manager for all productions and was assisted by an excellent production staff.

Academic Achievement Recognized At Special Program

In May, Fairview alumna, Susan Dlott, Assistant U.S. Attorney, was the guest speaker at the annual Fairview High School Academic Recognition Program. New members were inducted into the National Honor Society by Mrs. Jean D. Booker, Acting Principal. Freshmen, sophomores, and juniors with averages above a 3.0 were given certificates of achievement.

Assistant Principal, Benjamin W. Montgomery, awarded certificates to those students who achieved an academic average above a 3.0.

Drama Department Presents Original Musical

The final production of the Fairview High School Drama Department for the year was an original American musical, entitled WE, THE PEOPLE. The theme of the work was taken from the Preamble of the Constitution. The poetry of Edgar Lee Masters' SPOON RIVER ANTHOLOGY provided the framework on which the music, poetry, and prose of other American authors built. Mr. William Smith directed, as well as edited the book. Mr. Mark Avant was Vocal Director; Mr. Tom Jacobs was instrumental Director; and Dan Ehrenberg was the Student Director. Phil Bundman was Set Designer and Technical Director.

CAST: (L. to R.): R. Vera, S. Cast, D. Wortham, J. Jacobson, K. Kirkendall, T. McMath, S. James, N. Ponichtera, E. Scott, M. Reid, N. Moore, K. Fresh, D. Neiman, M. Hentrick, S. Schindler, C. Low, D. Dornbusch.

Fairview's Annual Art Show Draws City Wide Recognition

Outstanding art works are screened by Fairview's art teachers, Mr. C. Hodges, Mrs. A. Fowler, and Mr. J. Donovan. Art students volunteer their time to hang the show in Cola Cottage in preparation for the annual weekend show. Many of the pieces won awards in various state wide shows. Visitors come from all over the city to view the work of Fairview's award winning students.

1976 Junior-Senior Prom Was A Memorable Night

The Prom Committee of the Junior Class worked long hours in preparing for the traditional Junior-Senior Prom. The theme of this year's prom was "Where Are You Going To." Music was provided by the group Slave.

The Dayton Convention Center was the site of the prom, and the decorated skyway provided a memorable backdrop for a festive night.

Administrators Lead Fairview In A Year Of Excellence

MRS. JEAN BOOKER has been an administrator at Fairview High School since 1968. She taught previously at Grace A. Green and Edison Elementary Schools and at Roosevelt High School. Her first years at Roosevelt she was a gym instructor. In the following years, she was a guidance counselor and later an assistant principal. Since Mr. Norman's illness, Mrs. Booker has been serving as acting principal. Her main function is as an overall coordinator of school activities.

MR. LOUIS GALIARDI came to Fairview from Roosevelt High School where he had been for six years. There he served as a teacher, coach, and later as assistant principal. In his first year at Fairview his duties have been Building Security, Attendance, and discipline of the Junior Class.

MR. BENJAMIN MONTGOMERY is in his second year at Fairview. He had formerly been at Stivers where he had been an assistant principal. At Fairview he is coordinator of Student Activities, Senior Honors Assembly, and discipline of the sophomore class.

MR. ROBERT DENNEY came to Fairview from Patterson High School where his main functions were disciplinary action and Pride Review, a program designed to evaluate vocational programs within the school. At Fairview his duties include freshman discipline, repairs of building and grounds, Finance Committee, and other delegated responsibilities.
